

Lewis Elementary's SLAM Program

The Student Literacy and Media (SLAM) program celebrates students' artistic expression in response to reading award-winning literature.

Read a SLAM book.

Create an artwork piece.

2-D	Grades K-5 Ex: drawing, painting, or collage 11" x 14" max
3-D	Grades 3-5 only Ex: sculpture, craft, or diorama 2' x 2' x 2' and 20 pounds max
Digital	Grades K-5 (individual or group of 2-3) Ex: Powerpoint, book trailer, or book review 1 minute max video (email to deborah.cabral@hcps.net)

Turn-in to the media center

Artwork can be turned in anytime during the school year.

Winners will be selected from each artwork category turned-in by Tuesday, January 21, and will attend the district SLAM showcase at the Tampa Convention Center in March.

Earn rewards.

Receive a brag tag.

Play Plinko to win a prize.

Have your artwork displayed in the media center.

Turn-in 3 or more artwork pieces to attend the SLAM party in May.

Students can borrow SLAM books from the media center or the public library. They can also read the books online with Boundless, the district's free e-book app accessible through Clever.
