

YOUTH CIVIC ENGAGEMENT PROGRAM

July 18 - July 23, 2022

Stetson University College of Law's Youth Civic Engagement Program, held in partnership with the Foundation for a Healthy St. Petersburg

The Youth Civic Engagement program is designed to help students learn ways to empower themselves and others through civic issues and advocacy, both within their communities and in their social circles. The Program is free, and each participant will receive a small financial stipend.

The curriculum will include interactive workshops led by Stetson Law faculty and law students on the following topics:

- civic engagement
- social justice advocacy
- personal and community/online advocacy
- youth leadership and more

Eligibility

This program is for students in the Pinellas County, Florida area, aged 15-17 who are considered underrepresented due to race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, socio-economic status, and other underrepresented identities. Selected students must be available between 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. ET from July 18 to July 23.
