

Lewis Families,

On the back of this letter, you'll find this year's SUMMER READING CHALLENGE to help encourage students to read over the summer break. You can help your child by using this fun challenge to help them stay on track and motivated to read.

When students come back to school in August, they can return the completed challenge to the media center. I'll celebrate their reading success with some yummy ice cream. Have a great summer and happy reading!
