SPRING HAS SPRUNG!

As we enter our 4th nine week term, it comes with high expectations for the academic achievement of our students, as well as good behavior. This term will be very busy, so please watch for important information to come through your child's Friday folder and our parent link via text videos. Our students are working hard to prepare for upcoming state mandated testing. Good attendance during this time will be extremely important for student success. Encouragement and confidence in your child's ability is vital to their success. We want them to know they are prepared and very capable of excelling in their endeavors. With the help of staff, students, and parents, we will rise to the challenge. Let's join together to finish this year strong!
