4th Grade Teacher

This is Amy Hoover's 10th year teaching in Hillsborough County schools. It is her 9th year at Lithia Springs, where she currently teaches 4th grade.

"While I was earning my degree, I interned at Lithia Springs and fell in love with the school," said Hoover, who graduated with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from USF.

Hoover taught 1st grade at Kingswood Elementary for one year before joining the Lithia Springs team. She taught 3rd grade for seven years before moving up a grade.

"Fourth-graders are old enough to be fairly independent, but young enough to still be imaginative," she says.

Hoover is currently working on the 5th Grade Drama Club production of The Little Mermaid Jr., as choreographer. Hoover spends much of her spare time ballroom dancing. She performs and competes in both regional and national competitions. When not dancing, the Valrico native loves exploring new places, Disney World, and spending time with her family and friends especially her dog Savannah!

"She's my baby!"
