Week of October 4, 2021 • LSESPTABoard@gmail.com •

SCHOOL NOTES

 LSES Music Teacher Mrs.

Purkey is looking for any parents who play an instrument or sing. If you have a musical talent and would like to play for students during class, please contact Mrs. Purkey at alysa.purkey@hcps.net.

 Moving Mornings start this week from 7:10-7:25 a.m. Coach would like to remind students they will be able to get breakfast at 7 a.m. before their workout. Tuesdays – Kindergarten and 1st Grade. Wednesdays – 2nd and 3rd Grades. Thursdays – 4th and 5th Grades.

 Book Vending Machine!

LSES has started its incentive program. Each week, Mr. Martin selects 40-50 students to earn book tokens for a free book from the book machine. Click here to make a donation through Scholastic to keep the Book Machine full!

*Volunteers Needed in the Lunchroom. If you are interested in volunteering in the cafeteria, please click here to sign up for a shift!

The LSES Fall Festival is back! Mark your calendars for Oct. 29! The outdoor festival will be held after school and will include games, bounce houses, a cake walk, the silent auction and much more! More details will be announced in the upcoming weeks, but Mark Your Calendars now — you won't want to miss it!

Homeroom parents are already reaching out to parents to help with classroom baskets for the auction. If there are any business owners that would like to donate a service or good for the auction, please contact the PTA Board at LSESPTABoard@gmail.com.

Staff Spotlight

Brittney Blume School Psychologist

Brittney Blume is the new school psychologist at LSES.

Blume has worked within the Hillsborough County school district since 2015 after graduating from Nova Southeastern University with a Specialist in School Psychology degree. She has been assigned to several schools in the past six years. She currently is assigned to both Lithia Springs and Apollo Beach elementary schools.

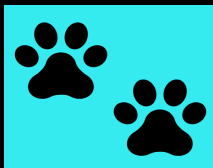

Blume's professional duties include completing student evaluations, participating in educational planning meetings, providing mental health support to students, and consulting with teachers and families.

Blume is a native of Winter Haven, Fla. She now lives in Riverview with her husband. The two love to travel.

"You can often find me reading travel books and watching travel related content online," she says.

She also enjoys hiking, biking and being outdoors.
