

Resources for Military Families

Military Interstate Children's Compact Commission (MIC3) is the governing body for the Interstate Compact on Educational Opportunity for Military Children. The compact addresses key education issues faced by military-connected students during interstate transfers between public schools. MIC3 assists with compliance and understanding of the compact. MIC3.net

Military OneSource provides information on services for all aspects of military life. <https://www.militaryonesource.mil/>

National Military Family Association's Operation Purple Program includes summer camps for military kids, and outdoor experiences for military families affected by deployment or injury. MilitaryFamily.org

National PTA offers resources for your PTA to support military families. <https://www.pta.org/home/run-your-pta/Diversity-Inclusion-Toolkit/supporting-multicultural-membership-growth/Children-in-Military-Families>

Our Military Kids Our Military Kids supports children (ages 5 – 12th grade) of deployed National Guard and Reserve service members, as well as those of wounded veterans from all service branches, with grants that provide up to $300 for a chosen activity. Participation in these activities helps military children cope with stress and build self-confidence while their parents are recovering or serving overseas.

<https://www.ourmilitarykids.org/mission/>

Season of my Military Student provides resources on how to support military students. <http://seasonsofmymilitarystudent.com/>

Sesame Street for Military Families provides information, strategies and activities for those that support military families. <https://sesamestreetformilitaryfamilies.org/>

Tutor.com is a free tutoring service for Active Duty, National Guard and Reserve members in the Army, Marines, Navy or Air Force and their dependents. Tutors are online 24/7 and available to help in more than 16 subjects. <https://military.tutor.com/home>

Yellow Ribbon Reintegration Program is a DOD-wide effort to promote the well-being of National Guard and Reserve members, their families and communities, by connecting them with resources throughout the deployment cycle. <https://www.yellowribbon.mil/>