

Weekly Update 4/15/24

Hawk Families:

Juniors and Seniors missing a reading or math benchmark will take the CLT test Monday. Please be at school on time! There is NO MAKEUP for this test. This test was scheduled for last Thursday but the company's server crashed.

Please speak to your students about vandalizing our restrooms. We've had it 3x in the male restroom this past week. Also, students are NOT to have food deliveries to the school. Breakfast and lunch are both free.

Conference Night is Thursday 4/18 from 4:15-6:30. Please stay involved via Canvas. Attendance is impacting student performance. Attendance and being on time to school and class are life skills. We truly need you to help us reinforce these life skills.

Seniors families-please make sure you are checking emails and your student is following the social media platforms so that you can stay up to date with information. This Thursday, we have a senior assembly and we will review graduation information. There are over a hundred seniors who have NOT purchased their cap and gown. Please handle ASAP so that we can get it delivered before the big day!

On Saturday, it was announced that our girls flag football made it into regional play and will face Ocee this week. Let's GO!!!

Our culinary students had a banquet to honor all their hard work and didn't have to cook!!! And also JROTC had their 2nd Joint JROTC Military Ball with Lennard High School. It was beautiful and the students were dressed to impress!

We have several students headed to California for DECA competition and we know they will represent Armwood with pride and excellence! Good Luck!

Our final pep rally of the year is Friday and we will recognize our spring sports. Sign outs must be done by 1PM.
